Harold Melvin's Blue Notes

Harold Melvin and the Blue Notes was formed in Philadelphia in 1954. Harold Melvin was one of the driving forces behind Philadelphia soul leading his group, the Blue Notes, to the top of the charts during their stint on Kenny Gamble and Leon Huff's Philadelphia International label. The Blue Note's focal point was lead singer and onetime drummer, Teddy Pendergrass, who joined the group in 1970 and whose surging baritone graced the Blue Notes' recordings during their glory years of 1972-1975 and gave them a truly distinctive sound.

Harold Melvin's Blue Notes includes original member Sharon Paige who sang many years with Harold Melvin and Teddy Pendergrass. She has reunited with this group to help continue Harold Melvin's musical legacy. Although the members have changed over the years, the distinctive sounds remains the same.

Just some of the songs Harold Melvin and the Blue Notes were famous for were:

- If You Don't Know Me by Now
- Wake Up Everybody
- The Love I Lost
- Where Are my Friends
- Bad Luck
